

Edward Lambe is Deputy Head of MED IT at the Bank for International Settlements. Edward is the IT project manager responsible for the deliver the BIS Data Portal which will modernise the banks data dissemination offering. Before joining the BIS in 2016, Edward worked in various statistical and IT roles at the Central Statistics Office, Ireland. Prior to that, he worked as an IT Technical Designer at the Bank of Ireland. Edward holds a master's degree from the Cork Institute of Technology and a bachelor's degree from University College Cork.