

Mafalda Trincão is economist at the Statistics Department of Banco de Portugal since 2013.

Currently, she is working in the Communication and Planning Division and she is in a multidisciplinary team that is responsible for defining the communication policy and creating content.