Banking loans and deposits July 2016

September 13th, 2016

Banco de Portugal publishes today in table A.9 of the Statistical Bulletin and in BPstat, statistics on banking loans and deposits vis-à-vis non-financial corporations and households for July 2016.

Loans

In July 2016, the loans granted to non-financial corporations and households continued to show negative annual rates of change (a.r.). The a.r. stood, respectively, at -2.2% and -2.9% (Chart 1), compared to -2.5% and -3.0% in the previous month.

The evolution of the a.r. in Portugal contrasts with the one observed in the euro area, where both segments registered positive a.r.: 1.3% on loans granted to non-financial corporations and 2.2% on loans granted to households. In the first case, the differential in a.r. was 3.5 percentage points (p.p.) in July, a decrease of 0.3 p.p. to the previous month. On loans to households the spread has remained at 5.1 p.p..

Deposits

The households' deposits placed with resident banks increased by 2 031 million euros in July, adding to 142.8 billion euros at the end of the month. This increase was reflected in an a.r. of 3.6% in July, the same as in the euro area (Chart 2).
