March 21st, 2016

Banco de Portugal publishes today in table A.15 of the Statistical Bulletin and in BPstat, the statistics of general government financing of January 2016.

The general government financing in January 2016 stood at -0.3 billion euros, which compares with +0.6 billion euros in the same period of 2015 (Chart 1).

The amount of the general government financing in January 2016 was the result of a reduction in the financing granted by banks (-1.4 billion euros), offset by an increase of the financing of the rest of the world (+0.7 billion euros) and of other resident sectors (+0.4 billion euros).

By financial instrument, a reduction of 3.2 billion euros was recorded in loans net of deposits, partially compensated by net positive issuances of securities of 2.8 billion euros (Chart 2).
