Today, Banco de Portugal publishes statistics, in Table A.15 of the Statistical Bulletin and in BPstat, on general government financing for September 2017.

From January to September 2017, general government financing stood at €1.4 billion, down from €3.8 billion in the same period of 2016 (Chart 1).

Financing obtained by the general government from banks and other resident sectors was €0.4 billion and €3.8 billion respectively. Conversely, general government financing granted by non-residents stood at -€2.8 billion, chiefly reflecting early repayments of IMF loans to the amount of €5.3 billion (Chart 2).

Financing through securities stood at €9.7 billion, which more than offset the €8.3 billion reduction in loans net of deposits.
