21 March 2018

Today, Banco de Portugal publishes statistics, in Table A.15 of the Statistical Bulletin and in BPstat, on general government financing for January 2018.

In January 2018 general government financing stood at €-81 million, i.e. below €-21 million as recorded in the same period in 2017 (Chart 1).

Financing obtained by the general government from banks was €1.8 billion. Conversely, over this period general government financing granted by other resident sectors and non-residents was €-1.1 billion and €-0.8 billion respectively. The latter reflected early repayments of IMF loans (Chart 2).

Financing through loans net of deposits was €-1.9 billion, offsetting financing through securities, at €1.8 billion.
