Today, Banco de Portugal publishes statistics, in Table A.15 of the Statistical Bulletin and in BPstat, on public debt for June 2018.

In June 2018 public debt stood at €246.7 billion (Chart 1), down by €3.6 billion from the end of May. This was essentially due to a decrease in debt securities and loans (Chart 2).

General government deposits declined by €4.8 billion, with public debt net of deposits increasing by €1.1 billion from the previous month, totaling €227.5 billion.
