3 September 2018

Today, Banco de Portugal publishes statistics, in Table A.15 of the Statistical Bulletin and in BPstat, on public debt for July 2018.

In July 2018 public debt stood at €248.2 billion (Chart 1), up by €1.6 billion from the end of June. This was chiefly due to an increase in debt securities (Chart 2).

General government deposits rose by €1.5 billion, with public debt net of deposits increasing by €0.1 billion from the previous month, to a total of €227.5 billion.
