Securities issues

November 2017

11 January 2018

Today, Banco de Portugal publishes statistics, in Table A.25 of the Statistical Bulletin and in BPstat, on issues of debt securities and shares for November 2017.

In November 2017 net issues (gross issues minus redemptions) of securities by residents totalled €1.4 billion. This is mainly explained by positive net issues of debt securities (€0.9 billion) and of shares (€0.4 billion) (Chart 1).

By institutional sector, general government and non-financial corporations presented positive net issues, while financial corporations showed negative net issues (Chart 2) outstanding amount of securities issued by residents totalled €456.0 billion, increasing by €2.1 billion from October 2017. This increase was especially due to the combined effect of positive net issues and the valuation of public debt securities (Chart 3).

In November 2017, the outstanding amounts of securities issued by non-financial corporations (€149.9 billion) and general government (€185.9 billion) reached the peaks of their series (Chart 4).
